

Create Meaningful Change

Fine Arts

Why choose Whitecliffe

At Whitecliffe, we want our students, staff, and alumni to Create Meaningful Change in the world.

Creativity is curious,
innovation is brave,
and both are needed to create meaningful change.

Everyone has a vision that is uniquely theirs, a lens through which they see the world, interpret the world, and in turn, help shape the world. At Whitecliffe, we nurture that vision, and we equip you with the skills, techniques, and methods to make your vision a reality.

Studying at Whitecliffe will help you become a stand-out thinker, innovator, and collaborator. Turn your talents into a life-long career and explore what you’re capable of. Learn to think creatively, critically, take risks, and develop advanced skills. Through these skills you’ll make valuable contributions and connections in the industries and communities you choose to work and live in.

At Whitecliffe, we encourage you to be brave and think deeply, so you can join the next generation of thinkers, doers, creatives, artists, design innovators, technologists, therapists, and leaders. Cultivate your talents, build new skills, and create meaningful change - study at Whitecliffe.

Whitecliffe offers a blended delivery model which is a combination of face-to-face, on-campus, and online learning. This gives our students the opportunity to work independently and collaboratively.

Our values

Our values are a commitment to how we will work with and treat each other.

Integrity

We are trustworthy,
kind, ethical and fair

Creativity

We explore new possibilities to create meaningful change

Courage

We are bold in our aspirations and actions

Belonging

We celebrate and embrace diversity.
We are better together

Levels of learning for all pathways

4 – 6 5 – 7 7 8 9

Whitecliffe offers programmes from level 4 certificates to level 9 Masters qualifications. You can start at the level that suits your experience and qualifications, and then progress to higher level programmes.

Fine Arts pathway

The Whitecliffe School of Fine Arts offers programmes from Certificate to Masters level in Fine Arts and Photo Media (Photography and the Media Arts) that will enable you to explore and extend your own creative ideas in a supportive and engaging environment.

Students are introduced to a range of drawing, mixed media, painting, lens-based and three-dimensional art-making techniques enabling them to communicate ideas visually, whilst providing opportunities to practice, develop, and refine these skills.

Critical art thinking and contextualisation is a key academic component of every course that sets our programmes at the forefront of creative art education.

We put a lot of emphasis on the importance of thinking through ideas and trying out different approaches, which leads to students producing work for public exhibition, providing insight into professional contemporary art platforms and enabling students to connect with the wider arts community.

Fine Arts

Fine Arts explores traditional and contemporary ideas, materials, techniques, and criticality in relation to students' own ideas and creativity. At the end of each Semester, students stage formal assessment exhibitions within their studio space. These displays provide opportunities for showcasing work to the public and are essential for resolving existing ideas and considering new directions.

Photo Media

The Bachelor of Fine Arts: Photo Media specialism places emphasis on contemporary fine art photographic and moving image practice. Students will consider the formal and technical aspects of photography and video, including making work for exhibition and publication, as well as best practice industry expectations surrounding lens-based image-making today.

Programme outline

Whitecliffe BFA (Hons) students consolidate the learning and achievements of the BFA undergraduate study through the realisation of a sustained practice-based research inquiry to prepare students for professional life in the creative industries. Students often undertake the Honours qualification to develop foundations for further research in a higher degree, pathwaying into a Master of Fine Arts (or equivalent), or where conditions are met, directly into a Doctorate programme.

Students undertake two courses of study across two Semesters: Studio Research and Critical Contexts. Both courses work to develop and integrate contextual, theoretical, and studio-based learning centred on student's in-depth research projects. The BFA (Hons) programme culminates in a final exhibition or presentation of studio research outcomes and an accompanying written research summary.

Right Laela Chung

Programme outline

The Master of Fine Arts is a full-time, two-year (year one at level 8, year two at level 9), low-residency programme enabling enrolled artists to live and work anywhere in New Zealand. Designed around four, week-long seminars per year, the programme is delivered by faculty and guests that are nationally and internationally respected artists, critics, writers, and curators. According to their interests and proposed direction of study, students are assigned two supervisors to support their studio practice as it develops from Semester to Semester in order to best support their direction and research throughout the programme

The MFA programme prepares artists for a professional career working within a diverse field of contemporary art practices across local and international contexts. The interdisciplinary structure and philosophy support artists in understanding how art and artworks operate in the world, and through regular critique, supervisory guidance, seminar participation, and a focus on exhibition and publication practice, assists them to develop their individual approach to practice and research.

Admission requirements

Applicants must

- Have a Bachelor of Arts degree (or equivalent) with a GPA of their final undergraduate year (Level 7 credits) of B–and above (GPA of 4)
- Present a portfolio that reflects skills and potential to successfully complete the programme
- Had significant exhibition and/or professional experience as an artist/designer
- Submit a Statement of Research Intent

Our campuses

Symonds Street

67 Symonds Street, Auckland Central

The Whitecliffe College head office and campus are based at 67 Symonds Street in the education hub of Auckland Central. This newly renovated campus provides a wide variety of high-quality art and design spaces, classrooms, and other learning facilities. This includes a library, art studios, darkrooms, screen printing facilities, a gallery, and a range of different computer suites to support specific student and programme needs. There are numerous food and entertainment options nearby, and public transport options are extensive and easily accessible.

Manukau

Level 2, 3 Osterley Way, Manukau

The Whitecliffe Manukau campus is located at 3 Osterley Way in South Auckland. The campus currently focuses on Level 3 and 4 vocational and foundation programmes in Fashion, Arts and Design, Digital Media, Creative Arts Therapies, and Information Technology. The campus is situated above the Manukau City Public Library, and next to the main train and bus depot which makes public transport accessibility simple. Downtown Auckland is just a twenty-minute drive from the campus. Westfield Manukau City, which is less than a minute from the campus, provides many food and entertainment options.

Wellington

110 Lambton Quay, Wellington

The Whitecliffe Wellington campus is located at 110 Lambton Quay. The city's compact size and efficient public transport system close to the centrally located campus makes it ideal for students. The campus is home to Whitecliffe's Information Technology programmes and facilities and provides a range of Fashion Technology programmes.

Christchurch

167 Madras Street, Christchurch

The Whitecliffe campus in Christchurch is located at 167 Madras Street. The campus offers Information Technology programmes and is located close to the Innovation Precinct Zone. The Innovation Precinct Zone is a new hub for emerging businesses to help foster new ideas and growth in the Technology and Innovation sectors in New Zealand.

Careers + employment

Our experienced Whitecliffe Careers and Employment team are passionate about helping you reach your short-term and long-term career goals.

We hold regular workshops through our Careers Lab to help prepare you for various levels of employment. Whether you're looking for part-time or casual roles while you study, workplace experience, or help with starting your career beyond Whitecliffe, these workshops will help you navigate this.

We also hold events that are designed to support your successful future beyond Whitecliffe. At these events, you will be able to meet and build valuable connections with people who are relevant to your field of study, learn how to start your own business, create your own brand, and more.

The Careers and Employment Team can support you with:

- CV and Cover Letter writing
- Interview skills
- Connecting with your industry
- Increasing your presence - On campus and Online

Whatever your future aspirations, you can book some time and talk to us, so that we can support your future!

Flexible study options

Online programmes

Whitecliffe offers a small number of fully online certificate and diploma programmes in Information Technology.

Blended learning

Most of our programmes are taught through blended delivery. This may include attending face-to-face classes and studio sessions, studying online, taking part in workshops or labs, or attending seminars on campus. There will be times you can study from home using our Canvas learning platform which enables you to actively learn and participate in various online activities.

Part-time study

A number of programmes of study have a part-time option where you can take fewer papers, and longer to complete your qualification. This may suit those who are working or have other commitments that don't allow for full-time study.

Most programmes require an interview as part of the entry requirements. For International Student English Language entry requirements refer to NZQA's website or contact Whitecliffe.

Funding your studies

Loans + allowances

Loans and allowances are available for those who meet the criteria. For more information go to www.studylink.govt.nz

Fees free study support

If this is your first time studying at tertiary level, you might be eligible for fees-free study support, administered by the Tertiary Education Commission. To check if you are eligible go to feesfree.govt.nz

Scholarships

Scholarships are often available and interested students should enquire with the admissions team prior to or during enrolment. For more information go to www.whitecliffe.ac.nz/scholarships

Supporting your journey

Māori + Pasifika learners

Whitecliffe is committed to addressing barriers to participation and success for Māori and Pasifika learners and has undertaken a number of activities to increase the understanding of and responsiveness to the needs of Māori and Pasifika learners. The activities include:

- Staff development focused on supporting Māori and Pasifika learner cohorts, culturally responsive teaching and pastoral support approaches, culturally relevant pedagogies, and the incorporation of mātauranga Māori in Whitecliffe's curriculum
- A Māori Cultural Coordinator (Pae Ārahi) to guide and support staff and students. The Pae Ārahi will advise and assist Whitecliffe in ways of meeting the needs of Māori learners. The importance of relationships is supported and sustained by the concepts of Manaakitanga, Whakamana (Mana), and Aroha.

Whitecliffe continuously monitors achievement of Māori and Pasifika students, reporting on this annually. The evidence provided forms the basis for ongoing self-assessment and improvement.

International students

International learners are supported by Whitecliffe through orientation, scheduled lecturer-led teaching and learning sessions, study skill sessions, supervised study plans, online course and learning support resources, and relevant pastoral support and mentoring.

Lecturers are supported to conduct learning and teaching activities that meet the learning needs of international learners. Pastoral support staff provide assistance where individual international students are struggling or dealing with issues that may impede their progress to provide them with suitable skills and support to enable them to succeed.

Counselling services

Whitecliffe provides all students at all campuses with access to three free counselling sessions through Clearhead, an online Mental Health and Wellbeing website. Clearhead has a pool of approximately 150 counsellors in various locations that can be contacted by students, depending on their need and preference. This provides students with confidential counselling from a wide range of providers many of whom have highly specialised skills.

Pastoral support

The Pastoral Support team are committed to providing ongoing support and advice for student safety and wellbeing and is compliant with and reports annually on The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021 which covers all students. The support team help students with issues related to such things as personal, family, or financial difficulties, physical health, mental health, stress, anxiety, physical disabilities, learning difficulties, and any other issues that may affect learning progression and success.

Library + learning support

The main library is situated on the Symonds Street Campus. The physical library is expanding to reflect the needs of all disciplines and subject areas. The emphasis on books and journals has shifted to electronic data bases and other electronic resources which provide a far broader range of more accessible up-to-date resources. These include:

- Databased – EBSCO, GALE Cengage Learning, and IEEEExplore
- eLearning Platforms – O'Reilly and LinkedIn Learning
- 140+ ebooks
- eJournals

The Whitecliffe Library holds the largest and only specialised Creative Arts Therapy collection in New Zealand. The collection contains nearly 1000 items available on campus in Auckland or via remote loan (email request and courier delivery to postgraduate students). This collection is the most called upon by readers and researchers outside Whitecliffe via the national interloans scheme. There is also a satellite collection on the Christchurch campus for Postgraduate Diploma in Creative Arts Therapy students and faculty.

Library staff assist students and staff with searching electronic and printed resources. They offer research and writing support and have created online tools and guides. Individuals can make appointments to discuss study and research needs in depth.
